

FACING RACISM WITH KNOWLEDGE, LOVE, COMPASSION, FEARLESSNESS, FORGIVENESS, ACTION AND INTERVENTION

Fall 2018 Series

Thursdays, September 11 – November 13 (6:30-8:30 pm)

This 10-week series aims to raise consciousness about the history and pathology of racism and help heal racism in individuals, communities, and institutions in Madison. We work cooperatively to educate ourselves about the disease of racism through facilitated and voluntary sharing. Please come with an open mind and open heart.

This session will be held at Goodman Community Center, 149 Waubesa Street, Madison. A 10-week commitment is required for full understanding and impact. Must be 16 or older to participate.

People of color encouraged to apply.

Open to all regardless of race, ethnicity, religion, political affiliations, sexual orientation, or gender identity.

Registration: $50 - Scholarships available; email healingracismminstitute@gmail.com

Suggested readings for series preparation:

- - Racial Healing by Newkirk and Rutstein
  - Uprooting Racism by Kivel
  - Just Mercy by Stephenson
  - New Jim Crow by Alexander
  - Between the World and Me by Coates
  - An Indigenous Peoples' History of the United States by Dunbar-Ortiz
